A Float Through Celebrity Solstice's Pacific Coastal Itinerary

After a 15-year hiatus, Celebrity Cruises is proudly relaunching its coveted Mexican Riviera cruises out of Los Angeles, California aboard the Celebrity Solstice. This will mark the first time the ship will be homeported in Los Angeles, which is great news for LA cruise lovers.

Just when you thought cruising couldn't get any better, Celebrity Solstice goes and does something like this. Not only will the Celebrity Solstice embark on itineraries from Los Angeles, California and make its way to visit some of the region's most popular cities including Puerto Vallarta, and Mazatlán. The Pacific Coastal itineraries will include Ensenada, Mexico, and north to Vancouver, British Columbia. Select sailings will also offer stops in Cabo San Lucas, where guests can experience a nightlife that is second to none. California Coastal itineraries will include stops and excursions in California cities like Catalina, San Diego, San Francisco and Monterey.

But wait, there's more! Not only will you get to experience all that the West Coast has to offer, but you'll also get to do it in style aboard the Celebrity Solstice. This beautiful vessel offers cruisers a wealth of amenities and spacious staterooms and suites. The state-of-the-art ship boasts everything from fine dining and world-class entertainment to an onboard spa and pool deck. In other words, it's the perfect way to see the Pacific Coast.

Sailing the Pacific on Celebrity Solstice

Cruising is one of the best ways to see the world. Not only do you get to relax and enjoy all that your floating hotel has to offer, but you also get to move seamlessly from one destination to another without having to worry about things like packing and unpacking or finding a place to stay. And with so many different cruise itineraries to choose from, there really is something for everyone.

But if we had to pick just one itinerary that we thought was truly special, it would be the Celebrity Solstice Pacific Coastal itinerary. Since the ship sails roundtrip from Los Angeles, you won't have to worry about flying into or out of another city.

One of the things we love most about this itinerary is that it gives you the chance to experience all that the West Coast has to offer—from the sun-soaked beaches of Southern California to the cooler temperatures and stunning scenery of Northern California. And whether you want to spend your days sightseeing or simply relaxing on board, you'll find that this cruise has something for everyone.

The Itinerary is Perfect for Adventure-Seekers and Culture-Lovers Alike

Cruising on the Celebrity Solstice means getting to visit some of Mexico's most treasured destinations. For those who want to explore ancient ruins and experience unique cultures, Mazatlán and Puerto Vallarta offer plenty of opportunities for landfall excursions. And what could be better than rounding out your adventure with a stop in sunny Ensenada?

The Ship is Absolutely Stunning

From the moment you step on board the Celebrity Solstice, you'll be impressed by its sleek design and modern amenities. This beautiful vessel offers cruisers a wealth of amenities as well as spacious staterooms and suites. Whether you're taking a dip in one of the three pools, getting pampered in the spa or enjoying a meal prepared by a Michelin-starred Chef in one of the exquisite restaurants, you'll find that this ship offers endless opportunities for luxury and relaxation. And when night falls, there's plenty of nighttime entertainment to enjoy including Broadway-caliber shows, live music, bars, nightclubs, casino gaming and more.

The Crew is Second-to-None

One of the things that really sets Celebrity Cruises apart is the amazing staff and crew members who work tirelessly to ensure that every guest has an unforgettable experience. The ship's staff is attentive and accommodating, always going above and beyond to make sure your needs are met. Whether you're looking for restaurant recommendations or need help planning shore excursions, they're always happy to assist. You'll feel like royalty from the moment you step onboard until the moment you disembark.

Sailing the Mexican Riviera on the Celebrity Solstice

During your time onboard Celebrity Solstice, you'll have the opportunity to visit some of the Mexican Riviera's most popular destinations. Travelers looking to explore vibrant cultures and experience natural beauty will love the itineraries and excursions. In Puerto Vallarta, discover hidden coves and beaches, experience the rich culture and history of Old Town, or go zip-lining through the jungle. Ensenada is perfect for wine lovers looking to tour scenic vineyards and taste local wines. Or explore Mazatlán's Golden Zone where you can
